THE WICCA CREATION STORY
Long, long ago, the world was asleep in a dark void. There was nothing around but pitch black darkness. The Spirit then gathered strength and created Our Lady of Infinite Love. She was an ethereal presence that danced among the heavens.

As she twirled, the heavenly bodies would move with her. Her dancing became the rhythm of all creation. The light emanating from her hair gave birth to all the stars and planets. Her quickened dancing formed the bodies of water and the mountains. She beautifully sang words of love and joy, giving life to flowers and trees. Her breath gave colors to the universe. Her laughter became the sound of the running water of the rivers and streams and the crashing waves of the oceans. She shed tears of joy; and these turned to rainfall as nourishment of the Earth. This way, everything became vivid and vibrant; pulsating with life!
Her dancing slowed and she needed a companion with whom she can share the wonders of the world. The Spirit then created The Lord as Our Lady’s companion for life. The Spirit made her companion half spirit and half animal so that together they could populate the Earth.

The Lord’s power can only move through her, and together they gave birth to all animal life: birds, fishes, and humans. To protect and guide the humans on Earth, they both created the power spirits. The power spirits are the energies we cannot see and yet are always with us. The Lady gave each bird a magic song, while the Lord gave each animal the instincts to survive. The Lord is the master of the animal and plant life and wears the antlers of a stag on his head.
When the humans began to grow and prosper, the Lord and Lady felt they needed healers among them. And so they drew energy from the angels, power animals, and humans to create the Witches. The Witches are blessed with the wisdom of the Lord and Lady. The Witches have the ability to heal, and are learned in the art of magic. It was the Lady herself who taught the witches how to cast a magic circle and how to communicate with the Spirit. The Lord taught the witches how to communicate with the elements: Water, Fire, Air and Earth, and the Spirit animals.

The humans and the witches lived harmoniously for a long time. But the time came when the humans began to fear the witches. So the witches started practicing their rituals and spells in secret. They feared death at the hands of the humans.
It was a dark period when ignorance and hate of human creation grew. At this point, the Lady took the Moon to represent her peaceful light and the Lord took the rays of the Sun to represent his strength. This is why every month, when the Moon is full, the witches would celebrate and think of the blessings the Lady has bestowed upon the Earth. For four times a year, the Witches would celebrate festivals of fire in honor of the Lord and his love for us. At the four quarters of the seasons, the Witches celebrate and honor the cycle of life--the Equinoxes and Solstices.

The Lady has many names. She can go by the following: Isis, Astarte, Bride, Diana, Aradia, Hecate. She resides in every woman. The Lord has many faces, from Cernunnos to Pan. He resides within each man. Whenever you hear thunder and see lightning take that as a sign that the Lord and Lady are dancing the rhythm of creation to serve as a reminder that we are not alone. Each sunrise each is a sign of the Lord’s love for us. The Moon’s different phases, makes us understand the cycle of birth, growth, death, and rebirth.
When your time comes, the Spirit moves and flows through the Lord and Lady so that we continue to learn the mysteries of the Universe so that we may be reborn to serve our brothers and sisters. In each lifetime, the Spirit is with us in our learning experiences, preparing us for our individual missions. There are lifetimes where we find ourselves with our own kind. There are some lifetimes where we must seek out our spiritual family. Your chosen path will come to you once you reach maturity and adulthood.

The witches represent wisdom on Earth. We are the people who come back from death. We represent power and change. We have been reincarnated in every race and culture. We are the divine angels on Earth.
